CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED

The Growth Enterprise Market (“GEM”) of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the main board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

To the Shareholders

Dear Sir or Madam,

PROPOSED CHANGE OF COMPANY NAME AND
PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

INTRODUCTION

On 6 December 2006, the Board announced that it intended to put forward a proposal to the Shareholders to approve the proposed change of name of the Company. The Board also intends to put to the Shareholders to approve (i) the consequential amendments to the memorandum and articles of association of the Company following the change of name of the Company; and (ii) the amendments to the Articles of Association.

* For identification purpose only

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The purpose of this circular is to provide Shareholders with details of (i) the proposed change of name of the Company and the consequential amendments to the memorandum and articles of association of the Company; and (ii) the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association, in respect of which the resolutions will be proposed at the EGM and to give you the notice of the EGM.

PROPOSED CHANGE OF COMPANY NAME

On 6 December 2006, the Board announced its proposal to change the name of the Company from “Chinainfo Holdings Limited” to “China Cyber Port (International) Company Limited”. Upon the change of name becoming effective in the Cayman Islands, the Company will adopt the new Chinese name “神州奧美網絡(國際)有限公司” in place of its current Chinese name “神州資訊控股有限公司” for identification purpose only.

Condition

The proposed change of name is subject to the passing of a special resolution by the Shareholders approving the change of name of the Company (which has been approved by the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands) at the EGM.

Reasons for the change of name

The Group is principally engaged in the provision of (i) real-time financial news and up-to-date financial market commentaries and recommendations through multimedia; (ii) investor education on financial markets in Hong Kong; and (iii) licensing of computer games in the PRC.

The Board considers that the PRC multimedia and internet market is a fast growing sector with significant business potential. To capture the benefit of such potential, the Group has been seeking opportunities to form alliances or to cooperate with partners that have well developed multimedia networks in the PRC.

On 1 February 2006, the Group entered into an acquisition agreement with China Communication Investment Ltd. (“CCI”) and acquired certain licensed rights of computer games software, and a license agreement with China Cyber Port Co., Ltd. (“CCP”) and CCI as guarantor licensing such rights to CCP. Both CCI and CCP are wholly owned by China Communications Co., Limited (“CCC” together with its subsidiaries, the “CCC Group”), a company established under the laws of the PRC and a nationwide telecom operator and internet network operator in the PRC. Upon completion of the said acquisition agreement, 85,542,000 shares of the Company were allotted and issued to CCI to satisfy part of the consideration (representing approximately 13.34% of the issued shares of the Company as at the date of this circular), and CCI became a substantial shareholder (as defined under the GEM Listing Rules) and a connected person (as defined under the GEM Listing Rules) of the Company. CCC and CCP, being associates (as defined under the GEM Listing Rules) of CCI, are also connected persons (as defined under the GEM Listing Rules) of the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Since then, the Group has been seeking further business opportunities with CCC Group. On 20 October 2006, the Group entered into a conditional agreement to acquire the right to receive certain net sales revenue derived from operating the computer game "Sudden Attack" in the PRC by CCP. Details of which are set out in the announcement dated 26 October 2006 and circular dated 30 November 2006 of the Company.

In view of the potential of the PRC multimedia and internet market and the successful partnership with CCC Group, the Board considers that the proposed new name will better reflect the current business expansion plan of the Company and the partnership with CCC Group, as well as refresh the corporate identity and image of the Company.

The Board is therefore of the view that the proposed change of name of the Company is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Effects of change of company name

The proposed change of name of the Company will not affect any of the rights of the Shareholder or the Company's daily business operation and its financial position.

The change of name will be effective on the date on which the special resolution is passed. Thereafter, share certificates of the Company will be issued in the new name of the Company. However, all existing share certificates in issue bearing the existing name of the Company or HK6 Holdings Limited will, after the change of name has become effective, continue to be effective as documents of title to and be valid for trading, settlement and registration purposes. There will not be any arrangement for the exchange of the existing share certificates of the Company for new share certificates bearing the new name of the Company.

In addition, to reflect the change of name, a special resolution will be proposed at the EGM for the Shareholders to consider, and if thought fit, approve, subject to the passing of the above special resolution in respect of the change of name of the Company and the coming into effect thereof, consequential amendments to the Company's memorandum and articles of association. Relevant filing will also be made to the Companies Registry in Hong Kong for the change of name.

The proposed changes to the Company's memorandum and articles of association shall become effective once the relevant special resolution is passed.

Further announcement will be made by the Company to inform the Shareholders of the results of the EGM, the effective dates of the change of name of the Company and the new stock short name of the Shares.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (e) if required by the GEM Listing Rules, by any Director or Directors who, individually or collectively, hold proxies in respect of shares representing five per cent. (5%) or more of the total voting rights at such meeting.

RECOMMENDATION

The Board considers that the proposed change of name of the Company and the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, the Board recommends the Shareholders to vote in favour of the special resolutions as set out in the notice of the EGM.
